- Discover Gujo Hachiman’s traditional dance culture and enjoy a live Gujo Odori performance
- Stroll through “Little Kyoto,” known for clear waterways, historic streets, local food, and the famous food sample workshops

08: 30	Nagoya	Begin your day tour. Meet at the MINISTOP convenience store behind BIC CAMERA at Nagoya Station West Exit.
10: 00	Gifu	▼Gujo Hachiman Castle (about 90 minutes, tickets are at your own expense) The Castle in the Sky Gujo Hachiman Castle is located on the 354-meter-high Mount Hachiman. The castle tower has four floors above ground and five interior levels, offering panoramic views of the town below. It is the oldest existing wooden reconstructed castle in Japan. Precious items such as mist armor and horse gear are preserved and displayed in the castle. Gujo Hachiman Castle is surrounded by a natural atmosphere like a forest park. The streets wrapped in red shell lattice reflect the style of the Edo period. It is famous for the crystal clear "Sogemi water" and the Gujo dance in summer.
11: 45	Gifu	▼ "Oumino Little Kyoto" Gujo Hachiman Castle Town (about 90 minutes, including free lunch time) Gujo Hachiman prospered as a castle town, and the reason why it is known as Little Kyoto is because temples were designed at every corner for defense purposes. There are actually 13 temples connected by roof tiles within a short distance, which is quite spectacular. Walking down the street, you can hear the sound of gurgling water coming from the waterways on both sides. This waterway took a total of 4 years to be renovated to prevent fires. It is still loved by residents. Whether it is laundry, washing vegetables, or watering flowers, they all make good use of the water in this waterway. It makes people feel as if they have returned to their childhood home life in the countryside. At the same time, the historic castle town has a variety of local delicacies and snacks. Enjoy the fun of walking and eating and feel the leisure time of Little Kyoto.
13: 20	Gifu	▼Gujo Hachiman Expo Hall (about 40 minutes, tickets are at your own expense) Gujo Hachiman Expo Hall, which was renovated from the old tax office built in the Taisho era, is a very suitable tourist attraction to get to know Gujo Hachiman. The features of the Gujo Hachiman are introduced in the expo by theme. The most attractive one is the "Live Teaching of Gujo Dance", which has a total of 10 scheduled dance performances. Teachers wearing yukata and geta are used to teach the formulas, so that people can quickly dance along with them. Four times a day, 15 minutes each time. 11:00, 13:00, 14:00, 15:00, During this tour, guests can join the 14:00 session.
14: 20	Gifu	▼Free time (about 120 minutes) *Suggested route: Sōji Water → Yoshida River and Yanaka Water Street → Food Sample Workshop → Itohata Trail → Gujo Hachiman Former Government Office Memorial Hall. Sōji Water is a well-known spring selected by the Ministry of Environment of Japan as the number one famous water in Japan. Yoshida River Yanaka Water Street-a unique flowing water path in the center of the street Food Model Workshop - In addition to DIY, you can also watch the actual state of the samples made by the teachers up close. It is said that it takes 20 years to truly become a master. Itohata Trail-You can feed the carp with your own hands Gujo Hachiman Old Agency Memorial Hall-former local government office
16: 30	return	End the trip and start returning. The return time is for reference only. You may return earlier due to smooth itinerary and good road conditions on the day.
18: 00	Nagoya	Arrive at Nagoya Station and end the tour near the same meeting point.
